

Meet the appraiser.

This year, we are pleased to have Mr. David Templeton as our expert appraiser for The Neely Vintage Market. He lives and works in the little Seaside community of Seahurst, WA. He has been the past president of the Lewis & Clark Chapter of the International Society of Appraisers (ISA). He's been in the antique business for 30 years as a dealer as well as restorer of gilded antique frames and vintage lighting repairs. David also runs his own appraisal company, Templeton Appraisals www.templetonappraisals.com, as well as conducting estate sales in the Washington State area. He specializes in appraising US coins, NW Coast Indian Art, antique lighting, musical instruments as well as antique furniture in general. David is a past member of The National Association of Aladdin Lamp Collectors (NAALC) and past President of the Bellingham Coin Club as well as a current member of the Burke Museum at the University of Washington in Seattle.
